FAMILY LAW

Taking care of hearts
while taking care of business

Houston-based Sam M. (Trey) Yates III is a board-certified family law attorney by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Since 1986, he has served residents of the Greater Houston Metropolitan market primarily in complex family law matters.

Yates believes clients need relevant information to make informed decisions as they navigate the maze of litigation. His firm provides aggressive legal representation, supported by cutting-edge technology and a team approach dedicated to one goal—reaching a speedy resolution that is best for each client. The diversity of his clients reflects the diversity of the community in which he practices.

Yates' practice focuses on divorce, complex marital property division, child custody disputes, will contests and guardianship litigation. His firm also offers marital property and estate planning.

Yates is a certified family law mediator, and is trained in collaborative law, which is a settlement process that helps divorcing couples create legal solutions that work for them without involving the Court.

In 2011, Yates created the popular, educational seminar series called The Guide to Good Divorce. The program is designed to help women effectively proceed through the divorce process toward a fuller, happier life. The seminars offer guidance from uniquely qualified experts on the laws of divorce in Texas, divorce financial planning, life skills and physical, emotional and spiritual wellness.
